

IOSH FACE-TO-FACE TRAINING COURSE TESTIMONIALS

On the 22/06/2023 in Stockport Josh Evans of Incredible Window Cleaning said 'the Cleaning Windows Safely course covered the use of waterfed poles and portable ladders, and was very helpful, I learned some useful information and about products. Kian McVicker IWC 'A great tutor, well informed. Dominic Thompson Archer WC 'Excellent course, and I learnt a lot'.

On the 13/06/2023 in London Simon James said: 'I'm glad I took the time to take part in the "Cleaning Windows Safely" training course today as I have learned and benefited from it, and I will take it in to the future of work with me. Many thanks to Tim, he was great!'

On the 11/05/2023 in Stockport Tony Georgiou of Art Cleaning said: 'the Cleaning Windows Safely course gives a great insight into new techniques, and correct procedures for ladders and waterfed pole work. Thank you to Bryan. Matt Macgregor-Dignan 'As an operative, I am now empowered to go forward onto foreman role with this knowledge of health and safety in the workplace. James Stanford 'Bryan is a very good instructor, perfect for the job, very welcoming and informative'.

On the 8/3/2023 in London Mark Tufnell said' the Cleaning Windows Safely course was presented in a relaxed comfortable manner, in good surroundings. Tim displayed very good overall knowledge throughout and delivered the course very well'.

On the 22/02/2023 in London James Robson said: 'this course is very useful for highlighting the dangers of using waterfed poles and ladders. Lee Allen 'the trainer was very helpful'.

On the 16/02/2023 in Stockport Nick Milner of Abbey Window Cleaning Ltd said 'I thoroughly enjoyed the Cleaning Windows Safely course, it was fun, enjoyable, and really informative. Andrew Gray of Wales and Dales Window Cleaning Ltd. 'A very informative and valuable course'.

On the 12/01/2023 in Stockport Thomas Oakes said: 'I learnt some interesting things on the course. And Bryan was brilliant. Dylan George of Pheonix Cleaning said: I think the course is valuable as I learnt the correct ways to handle window cleaning work'. Nick Allen of Phoenix Cleaning said: 'Definitely worth attending this course, it was informative, interesting, and laid back'.

On the 28/07/2022 in Stockport David Williams of Aquareach said: 'Very informative course in a nice, relaxed learning environment' 'Bryan is a very polite and charismatic tutor, easy to understand bite sized information. Very informative and I would definitely recommend it'.

On the 26/07/2022 in Scotland James Catterson of Palmer said 'the "Cleaning Windows Safely" course was very well organised and rewarding. 'Palmer, it helped seeing different ladder fixtures for different jobs.

On the 8/03/2022 in London Mark Tufnell of Groves Window Cleaning said' the course was presented in a relaxed comfortable manner, in good surroundings. Tim displayed very good overall knowledge throughout, and he delivered the course very well.

On the 23/03/2023 in Stockport David Williams of Aquareach Ltd said 'this Risk Assessment course covering windows, gutters, and external facades elevates standards; and was delivered in a relaxed manner by an experienced tutor. The venue was a comfy work environment. The course material and notes were detailed and practical with clear teaching points. The subject can be dry, but the course was presented in a realistic and enthusiastic way, and I was really pleased that it met all course objectives...it was not as bad as I expected. Aiden Bayarin 'the course delivery was very clear and helpful, and the tutor took time to explain things clearly if anyone was unsure'.